Yellow warning
Rain

Between 14:00 Sun 27 Jun 2021 and
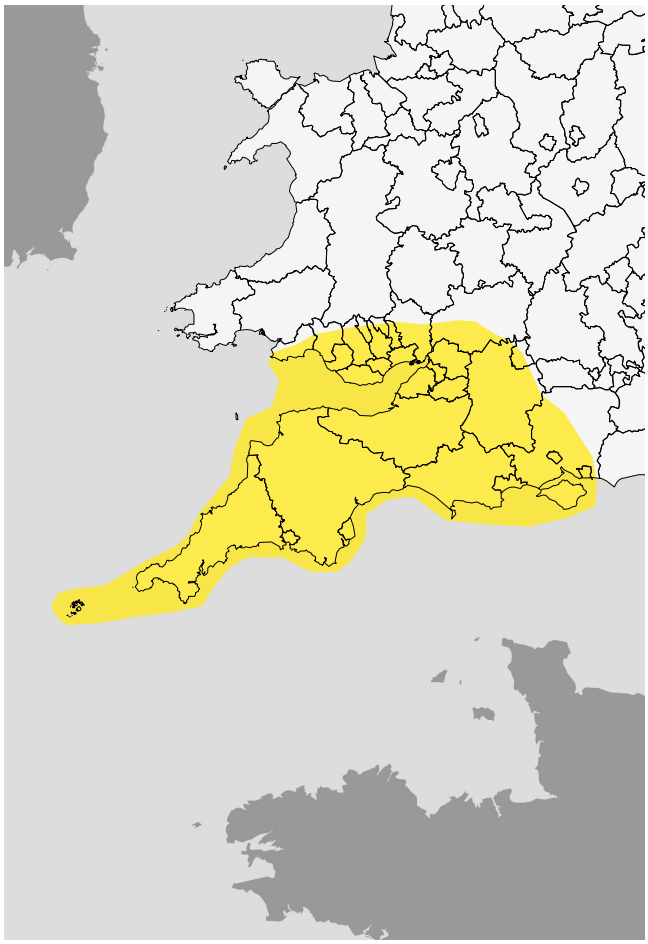
07:00 Mon 28 Jun 2021



Areas of persistent and sometimes heavy rain may lead to localised flooding and travel disruption

What to expect

- Spray and flooding will lead to difficult driving conditions and perhaps some road closures
- Where flooding occurs, there may be delays or cancellations to train and bus services
- There is a small chance that homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- There is a small chance of fast flowing or deep floodwater

Further details

Persistent rain, heavy and possibly thundery at times, will move across southern and southwestern areas of England and parts of south Wales through Sunday afternoon, persisting into Monday morning, before easing.

20-40 mm is likely to fall quite widely across the area but a few places could see 60-80 mm over this period, including 15-25 mm within an hour. Such totals may cause travel disruption and some flooding.

Very low likelihood of medium impacts
